Birch Bay Bath Cabinetry Offers Contemporary Expression of Coastal Styling

Simple and relaxed, Strasser Woodenworks' latest freestanding cabinet provides the ideal addition to the bathroom oasis

(Woodinville, WA, May 25, 2016) Strasser Woodenworks' newest bath cabinetry collection, Birch Bay, exudes the relaxed, refreshed feel of coastal contemporary styling. The modern interpretation of vintage cottage style seamlessly complements a range of home décors, from the quaint Cape Cod to the grand Federal revival.

"Whether a seaside home or a suburban ranch, Birch Bay's sweet simplicity creates an instant oasis in the bath," says Peter Ollestad, national sales manager for Strasser Woodenworks. "At the same time, simple lines and thoughtful scaling make Birch Bay suitable for bathrooms of any size while providing ample storage."

Birch Bay 36" vanity with medicine cabinet and matching linen cabinet in Powder Gray

Birch Bay is available with plain or beaded Shaker doors and slab drawers. It is constructed of maple with a painted finish in satin white, satin biscuit, satin silver, powder gray, and satin black. Sizes include 24-, 30-, and 36-inch widths, along with coordinating medicine cabinets and a 70-inch-tall linen tower.

Like all of Strasser Woodenworks' cabinetry, Birch Bay is manufactured with careful attention to quality and detail, including solid wood doors and soft-close drawers with stunning dovetail construction and solid-wood legs. Each piece is made in the USA and built to order, a detail that ensures consistency in raw materials and craftsmanship.
