Vice President of Sales Peter Ollestad in the Strasser booth

"The finest manufacturers and showrooms in the country belong to LPG. We're proud to be part of the group and it's truly an honor to be recognized for going the extra mile," says Strasser's Vice President of Sales, Peter Ollestad. "Strasser did a fantastic job of creating complete displays. The vanities were fitted with faucets and details that looked like they were in a working bathroom. Theirs wasn't the largest booth, but it was the most detailed," says LPG Executive Director Jeff MacDowell. "Since we carefully select our vendor partners, we make sure that we strategically align with vendors who are committed to the independent channels of business. We feel that Strasser delivers year after year with quality American made products that help define luxury in many markets that we serve," MacDowell adds.

Featured in this year's booth were a 24-inch Newhalem bath vanity in Pecan Cherry with coordinating linen cabinet, a 42-inch Alki Spa in Powder Grey, and a 42-inch Belltown vanity in Lapis Night.
