Strasser Woodenworks Expands SoDo Wall-Mount Vanity Collection

New 60-inch size gives designers even more options for sleek, modern bath storage

"SoDo gets its name for an area of Seattle where gritty ports and railways meet high-tech company headquarters, and the vanity's industrial-yet-sleek vibe reflects that namesake," says Peter Ollestad, Vice President of Sales.

The 60-inch unit is available with a single center basin, featuring a center two-door cabinet and two-wide drawers on each side, or with a double basin, featuring two center drawers and dual cabinets on each side. Its wall-hung application allows for mounting at any height for optimal versatility.

Made in the USA with the utmost attention to quality, SoDo vanities feature solid wood drawers with dovetail joinery and sealed bottom and top edges. Other details include soft-close doors and drawers, full-extension under-mount drawer glides, and six-way adjustable door hinges.

SoDo comes in four door styles: Slab, Shaker, Deco Miter, and Ogee Miter. Seventeen finishes are available, including Satin White, Satin Black, Chocolate Oak, Satin Silver, Dark Cherry, and Powder Grey. Choose from a range of knobs and pulls, and vanity tops in granite or quartz.
