Warm Walnut wood offers elegant addition to the vanity's comforting authenticity and traditional lines

(Woodinville, WA, September 26, 2023) STRASSER, manufacturer of high-quality, luxury vanities, has added Warm Walnut to its options for the Wallingford Town vanity. The classically elegant wood species evokes a calm, relaxing vibe perfect for Wallingford's gentle curves and fluid lines. The Wallingford Town vanity features six slab-style drawers.

The Wallingford vanity offers a traditional appeal, with a pleasant arch design at the base leading to tapered legs for a refined, feminine look. Boasting ample drawer volume and full extension undermount drawer glides, the vanity is designed to maximize space for bath and beauty items. The solid-wood drawer boxes feature dovetail joinery, soft-close mounts, and an assortment of hardware including knobs, pulls, bars, and handles. Quartz tops in nine finishes, and 16 cabinet finishes are available on the other Wallingford styles of vanities.

“The Wallingford vanity evokes a sense of comforting timelessness that’s just as attractive in a traditional bathroom as it is in a transitional spa like environment. The luxurious, sensuous appeal of walnut is perfectly suited to the vanity’s rich warmth and comfortable curves. It’s the ideal new addition to one of our most popular vanity styles.”
